团员们在好莱坞电影城前合影

美国之旅中最让我感到兴奋的就是加州迪斯尼。这里虽然不大,但却让人觉得很温馨和梦幻,而且我还有幸遇上了游街,当时真是万人空巷!首先出现的是米老鼠先生,他随着有趣的爵士乐向大家挥手致敬;紧接着是可爱的唐老鸭,他扭了扭屁股,然后举起了手,挥了挥;最后出场的是灰姑娘、白雪公主,还有贝尔公主,她们抬头,轻轻捏起美丽的裙角,转了几下,然后微笑着对我们点了点头。我在这里看到了一切一切在日常生活中看不到的梦幻景象,使我觉得很神奇、很有趣。

渔人码头和金门大桥

我们的第一个景点渔人码头,渔人码头原来是出海捕鱼的港口,现在因为失去了码头功效,经过商业包装,便成为了休闲圣地。我们乘船缓行于水上,当我们来到金门大桥时,雾将整个金门大桥包围起来,形成了雾满金门的景象,令人流连忘返。

西点军校

今天我们去了西点军校,这个也许是给我印象最深的学校了。它有着独特的风格,它很多地方都是空旷的草地,就算是建筑也如旧世纪的古老碉堡一般,发出深沉的韵味。从郁郁葱葱的草坪看去,竟然是一道海峡,有山有水,十分壮观。

We climbed up to the top of Lombard Street. We had to keep up with our team, so we couldn't slow down. There were flowers everywhere along the street, in front of the doors, or even on the roofs. Some of them were pink, but most of them were white and purple. That was so amazing! We were tired, but also very happy.

Stanford University in my mind

After having been to several universities, my favorite one is Stanford University. This university was founded by Mr. and Mrs. Stanford in 1885. The school yard has many flowers and many kinds of trees. It is so beautiful. While Stanford University has a long history, I feel this university's youth and vitality.

In China Daily's New York office

We are fortunate to enter the China Daily's office and had a short conversation with a smart journalist called Zhang Yuwei. She let us introduce ourselves at first. I was confident and introduce myself in English. Then, she asked us different questions, I was so nervous, that I didn't catch her question. I felt a little pity anyway, but I learned more from the visiting!

Harvard University

To become a student at Harvard University is a dream, maybe it is everyone's dream. I was lucky one for I can visit Harvard as a member of the China Daily Summer Camp.

Harvard is a very big and old university. It's very beautiful and it is very clean. It has a very big library. Two students from Harvard gave us an introduction to the school. From that I had came knew that there are many presidents of America from this school. For example: Obama, Franklin, John Adams, Bush....

We went to an amazing place—the Singapore zoo!

We were very excited to visit the zoo and found that all the animals in the zoo were very friendly and lovely.

We saw the birds, hippos, kangaroos, monkeys, elephant, parrots, sea lions and so on. But I have to say, I like the hippos most!

After we saw the hippos, we went to see an elephant show. The elephants picked up the wood with their noses and won the applause.

I think maybe the most memorable thing was seeing the sea lions. The smart sea lions showed us dive, swim.

Visiting Singapore zoo was a meaningful and interesting trip. It is an unforgettable memory for me and I learned quite a lot there.

新加坡国家植物园

新加坡的国庆日,我们去游览了新加坡国家植物园。其中,最难忘的当属国家植物园中胡姬园里那高达五米的相思树。

相思树的果实,是一颗颗大红色的相思豆。相思豆生长在树上的豆荚里,每当成熟的时候,豆荚便会干枯开

裂,大红色的豆子便如雨落一般,引得游人捡拾,捡到的相思豆可以用线串成手链,寄托着人们的思念。带着这份思念,我对此流连忘返。

在新加坡做义工

到新加坡的第三天下午,我们到敬老院做义工。进入敬老院,感到虽然敬老院非常干净、清爽,但是这里的老人看

起来却很孤独。

我们首先和他们一起聊天,他们中有的老人只会说广东话、闽南话、客家话,我们就只能通过敬老院的工作人员翻译。老人们都很高兴,我们也尽力与他们交流。

随后,我们为老人们表演了节目,我们每个人都经过精心准备并且卖力

演出,希望能为老人们带来快乐。我演唱了一首英文歌《big big world》并朗诵了配乐诗《我的家乡大理》。

半天的义工生活结束了,我们每个人都心里都感到很充实,同时为有机会给老人们带去一点快乐而感到自豪!

神奇的水上世界

新加坡的水上世界不同于其它,这里有海啸形成的原理和漩涡让你体验,还有水上迷宫。最引人瞩目的当属水制钢琴了:钢琴中间有一个大圆盘上面刻

魅力圣淘沙

等我们到达海边时,已是下午三点多,正巧,赶上了日落。我和营员们一样,与浪花嬉戏着,同时我也在默默注视那开始西沉的落日。此时,夕阳橙红色的光芒映在水中,恰似一只跳动的火球。渐渐地,渐渐地,夕阳沉下去了,把最后一点光芒,留给了陪伴她的云彩,使那些云彩们,变成了一个身着大红色裙子的美丽姑娘——火烧云。

圣淘沙不仅让我领略了鱼尾狮的雄伟,新加坡历史的灿烂,我还从太阳身上感悟到一种精神,一种勇于奉献的精神。啊,魅力圣淘沙!

异乡巴士, 中国情

第一天上学, 我要坐巴士到市中心, 尽管前一天寄宿家庭已经向我非常详细地介绍过该如何乘坐巴士, 但我心中不免还是有一些紧张。

悉尼的早上并不暖和, 由于是早班车, 人甚少, 车厢内很是干净。寂静空气里面凝结着陌生与寒冷, 忽然感到了一点身在异国他乡的寂寥。人们或沉浸在耳机内的音乐声里, 或关注着手中的报刊杂志, 又或沉沉睡去缄默不语……于是, 我看着窗外, 也闭紧了嘴巴, 却把心情放逐到那遥远的故乡。

故乡的公交车上人与人之间都有着不远不近的距离, 不要说一起的朋友, 只要有人聊天, 聊得有趣就会有旁边的陌生人插活进来, 好像大家原本都很熟悉了, 车厢内的欢声笑语可以打发一路的无聊, 到了下车的时候说一声“再见”, 便散了, 也许还有再见, 也许再见的机会, 但结果一点也不重要, 因为我们一起快乐过。虽然, 公交车的座位都是一个座位只能坐一个人, 但是这种疏离的格局也无法割断人与人之间热情, 中国的冬天没有澳洲这么的清冷。

真不知道, 在故乡坐在不同的座位上, 隔着通道千山万水也要聊着, 而在澳洲坐在同一张椅子上却沉默如天涯, 人与人之间的距离到底怎样是近? 怎样是远呢?

At the most unforgettable moment, I joined China Daily and was introduced to meet a beautiful place, California.

Today, I finally breathed the air of California. It was an indescribable feeling, but the feeling was real. There were so many hand prints, but I found a very special one and stopped to read "Wow! Mickey!" I thought it was an adventure. The next day, I chose to go to its home, Disneyland, a colorful world with fantastic figures. At that moment, I burst into tears. Amazingly, the technology aroused my curiosity for science. That was really awesome!

寻美之旅

这次美国之旅让我成长了一些,收获了一些。虽然偶尔遇到问题,独自自在的我也学会了独立思考。此次旅行给我印象最深的是美国西部的天气、环境,东部的学校以及美国人的思维方式。

漫步美国西部的街上,一种清爽、纯净之感萦绕心田。那里的空气中好似一尘不染,还能闻到草的幽香,这也是我们回国后自己该努力打造的环境吧。

美国人的许多思维方式非常值得我们学习,例如:在美国的大街上,随处可以发现旧的汽车或是完全不知名的车。导游解释说,他们根本不在乎车的外在、类型、牌子或者新旧,他们在乎这辆车能不能开,是否安全。他们已经把其他因素看得很淡了,汽车仅仅是一种工具。再比如在迪士尼乐园里,看自由钟的路上,美国境内的航站楼里,我们都看到了坐轮椅的残疾人和牵着导盲犬的盲人,“人人平等”温暖着那里的每一个人。

这些就是我发现的“美”,寻美之旅的过程美好而充实,我只愿世界更加美好。

爱心伴我行!

“只要人人都献出一点爱,世界将变成美好的人间……”唱着《爱的奉献》这首歌,我们来到了新加坡的一所敬老院。

到了敬老院,我们为老人们表演了前一晚上临时组合编排的节目。把一份份用心编织成的爱之音符传递给他们,用快乐的舞蹈去感染他们,让他们不再孤独,让他们被爱环绕。表演过后,我们向护士姐姐询问了敬老院的一些情况,发现他们中的很大一部分是由于因为子女的工作太忙,迫不得已才来敬老院。

设想,如果所有人年迈时,都到敬老院里生活(按照一个敬老院可以居住500名老人),那中国至少要建60万个敬老院,全世界至少要建1000万个敬老院,这是一个令人不敢想象的数字。如果说人人都有一份爱心,力所能及地照顾好自己的每一位亲人,不把老人送到敬老院,那么这个数字永远都是一个虚影。让我们的世界充满爱,让有着五千年历史的中华传统美德源远流长。

“只要人人都献出一点爱,世界将变成美好的人间……”让我们唱遍中国,唱响世界!

Travelling in England

As we all know, England is located in the Northwest of Europe with wonderful view, and is famous for its buildings and culture. So when I was a child, I dreamed of visiting this extraordinary country. At the beginning of this summer vacation, my dream was finally realized.

We spent most of the time visiting the capital of England, London, where were being hold Olympic Games. Here I would see lots of famous buildings, such as Big Ben, Tower Bridge. All of them reflect England's history culture.

The most exciting activity was taking

London Eye, which is one of the biggest ferris wheels in the world. In my opinion, it liked a slow-moving "flight" over London and the feeling was great.

On the fifth day, we left London to visit Cambridge, Windsor Castle, York and Stonehenge. During the trip, I learnt that every place had a history of one or two thousand years.

The time passed quickly and our trip soon came to an end. I think England is the best place I've ever been and the journey is the most pleasant memory of my life. I won't forget it.

什么是新闻摄影?

新闻摄影是以摄影图片的形式对正在发生的事件进行的新闻报道。

新闻摄影中,最重要的三个因素是什么?

主题、主体、简洁

摄影构图方法:九宫格构图法

人们发现在九宫格的线段交汇外,也就是交汇的4点,是人们视觉最敏感的地方。人们将其称之为“黄金四点”。顾名思义,当被摄物体在这四点中一点或几点时,最为引人注目。所以,我们要将我们所拍摄的物体放置于这四点中的一点或几点。即如左图示:

Educational Differences between China and the US

With the increasing economic growth of China, many parents are deciding to send their children to the US to continue their education. Some want to start from high school, others plan to come when they are older. But before taking further action, it's important to know the differences between the two educational systems.

First of all, grade classifications are not the same. In China, the basic education consists of six years at elementary school, three years at middle school, and three years at senior high school. However, in the US, students spend three years in elementary school, two years in middle school (grade seven and grade eight), and four years in high school (from grade nine to grade twelve).

For students considering to advance their academic career to college, the ways for them to become college students are quite different. In China, students need to take the National College Entrance Exam (Gaokao) for their university placements. The exam is held once a year for graduating high school students, and is a prerequisite for entering into almost all higher education institutions at undergraduate level. It's a major event, since the exam can determine a student's entire life. But in the US, there is less pressure for students to get into a desired college. Most universities ask for either an SAT or ACT score. Each university has its minimum score. Starting from the tenth grade, students are asked to start preparing for these tests. Practice tests are given out in school and students can choose to take official tests as early as they are in tenth grade. Once they achieve a satisfactory score, they can choose to send the score to the universities they desire to attend later. In addition to the SAT/ACT scores, students need to meet other requirements, such as minimum average high school academic grades, participation in extra curricular activities, recommendation letters from teachers, volunteer work, and a personal statement. Universities will weigh all these materials and make a decision whether to accept the application or not. According to American school system, students are able to show their abilities in various forms and get accepted to the desired.

By looking at the ways in which students apply to universities, you can probably guess that the attitudes towards teaching students are different. Since the Gaokao is a major criterion in determining a student's future in China, an important mission for high school teachers is to ensure the knowledge of each subject is well taught and the students memorize it well. The ways to crack the possible questions in the Gaokao are a major focus in the classes. However, American schools aim to stimulate the creativity and the practical application of the knowledge being taught. Occasionally, students are assigned research papers and scientific projects in order for them to put their newly acquired skills into actual usage and to realize the importance of putting the methods into practice.

It's hard to make a final judgment as to which education system is better. Given the cultural and social differences of each country, their approach to education is also different. However, since the world is getting smaller with more frequent interaction, sending children to see and to learn about others in depth is a wise decision.

In a word, the travel experience is unforgettable. Not only did it help me to gain a better understanding of the educational differences between China and US, but it also let me learn and realize much more. I think it is important for me to thank China Daily with all my heart.

A Tour at Singapore

On my first day in Singapore, I already fell in love with this country! I was infatuated with everything in this beautiful country. There were a lot of flowers and trees along the road, and the birds were singing in the trees.

First day in Singapore, we had a great English class in the EMC school, the teacher spoke English in the class and helped us practiced speaking English. After the class, we took photos with the cute teacher. Then, we went to the zoo to see many lovely or scary animals. We also went to visit the old people, some of whom can speak Chinese with us. We sang songs and played balls with them, we all felt so happy! The last day, we followed our tour guide to went to the beautiful beach.

From this tour, I learned lots of things, and I believe I can do better in the future.

When it was time to go back to China, I didn't want to go, because I want to stay in Singapore forever!

A Walk down Lombard Street

I've never seen such an amazing street! Till today, I saw the real face of her—Lombard Street, the most wonderful street in the world.

I got off the bus and looked ahead—it was a very long and winding street! There were old and nice buildings on either side of the street. Their style was ancient and different from the one in China. I thought of the Middle Ages in Europe. Everything here was old and mysterious. It was the style I like and I really want to live in a house like that.

When we got to the most famous part of Lombard Street, I thought—how should I describe it? It was much more winding than what I had imagined. Lombard Street consisted of eight sudden turnings and it looked like the letter "Z". Why not take photos of it?

After a while, we got to the top! We could see half of the San Francisco! All around was sky. There was a blue city at my feet. Air was much fresher. I was on the top of the world now!

俯瞰旧金山

今日的旧金山显得格外的冷,雾气覆盖了整个金门大桥,只露出了那高耸的桥顶。风很大,天气也很冷,但这都掩盖不了我们对这座城市的好奇。

离开金门大桥,我们向双峰山驶去。路程不远,我们依偎着南山公路驶上山顶,在驶上山顶的那一刻,我突然感到眼前看到的一切不那么真实:所有的楼房,公路在一点一点地缩小。原本高楼林立的城市显得更为安逸。那一刻自己和天空的距离很近,仿佛更近一些便会融为一体,这座城市就这样以他最真实的样子呈现在我的面前。

午后,雾气慢慢散去,景象越发清晰了:高楼集中在一起,无疑成了这座城市的一大亮点。其余的小平房就像小草一样点缀在高楼旁,但在我的眼里那些矮小的平房并不是衬托物,取而代之的则是这座城市的主角。这么多天的美国行下来,我发现美国人民并不追求那些繁荣奢华的生活,大多数人更多地选择回归田园,与花草树木相伴,在 countryside 盖一间小房子,一家人住在里边,加上自己的小宠物,每天一起吃饭,聊天——这样的生活再惬意不过了!

俯瞰这座城市,我突然想化作一只小鸟,展开翅膀,带着梦想一起翱翔在这里的每一个角落。

阳光照了下来,天气不再像之前一样阴冷,风似乎也小了些,行走在山顶的边缘,看着山下的行人,让目光穿梭每一个角落,找到属于我的那份恬静!

在迪斯尼游乐场,无论你是多大的年龄都能找到自己可玩的去处,惊险刺激的大型游戏是我们这帮孩子的首选,当然每个小孩子都有一颗长不大的童心,我们双脚纷纷踩上了旋转木马的马鞍,稳稳当当的坐在上面,随着音乐起舞,那儿的记忆涌上了心头,童年的时光仿佛又出现在眼前,音乐很快就结束了,下马的一瞬间,是多么的不舍,舍不得自己长大。

环球影院,是你发现好莱坞电影拍摄秘密的地方,亦是你体验高科技带来的刺激和惊悚的地方。影院的亮点之一是变形金刚2 3D版的亲身体验,绝对是让你在视觉,触觉,听觉的一次空前的震撼。逼真到极点了,高科技带给我们的想象不到的体验和效果。

在好莱坞星光大道,人群拥挤,人人都为了自己心中的英雄而来,都在找寻自己多年来关注和喜爱的巨星,迈克尔·杰克逊,我心中的英雄,大家的英雄,找到了! 蹲下身来,伸出自己的双手与英雄的双手融合到一起,就好像真的见到了本人,与英雄见面了,握手了。李小龙,中国人的骄傲,也是好多外国人心中的巨星,找到了!
